

I'm currently a big fan of the K-LOVE radio station which resides on the proposed LPFM wavelengths. I believe it is important to let the FCC know that K-LOVE is well-appreciated, a boon to each community they serve, and strives to impact each community they reach with a positive message. The undue burden of the cost of relocating their service, and advertising as such, on a listener-supported entity gets translated directly to the supporters.