

K-Love radio has been an important part of my life for over 3 years now. The encouragement and positive songs and messages have gotten me thru some of the hardest times in my life. I truly don't know what I would do without them on my radio. K-Love has been a way for me to encourage and help friends and family when they are going thru a hard time, gives moms driving kids to school in the morning a wholesome program to listen to. K-Love is also an integral part in supporting our troops and giving them hope and encouragement when times right now are uncertain and crazy. Since radio, especially morning shows, have become increasingly distasteful, it really is nice to have an alternative that is positive and can truly change a persons life by their messages and uplifting words. They focus on positive news stories as well as major current events. If you need to decide for yourself if K-Love is worthy of staying on the air, go to klove.com, find the station closest to you and listen for a day. I'm sure you will see what I'm talking about. Thanks for your consideration. Have a blessed day.
